[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO OCT 15

Advices via Berlin

LONDON Oct 14—Noon.—A dispatch from Versailles yesterday dated via Berlin was received to-day containing the following: The credit for arming the German people has been raised to twenty-three millions.

Prince Frederick Charles occupies the house of the Prince of Moskwa, son of Marshal Ney.

The royal headquarters are at the west of the beleaguered city and those of the Crown Prince to the east.

VERSAILLES Oct 13 via Berlin 14.—The Prussians have shelled and partially fired the Palace of St. Cloud.

Ten French battalions made a sortie from Paris to-day but were easily repulsed by the Second Bavarian corps, which lost only nineteen men.

Dispatches from Tours

TOURS Oct 13.—Nothing has been received from Orleans or Paris to-day. A dispatch from the Sub-Prefect of Pont Levque dated Wednesday confirms the reports of successful sorties by Bazaine. He had burnt five villages which had given shelter to the Prussians, dislodged the enemy from several positions and cut to pieces four regiments of cavalry and several battalions. At the same time Canrobert had made a successful sortie on the right bank of the Moselle river.

TOURS Oct 14.—A dispatch from Bonneville on the Loire reports that the Prussians lately at Aublain are now moving on Chateau Dun, where the National Guards are ready to receive them.

Advices from Metz show that the Prussians occupy a cordon of villages around the city but hold no position within twenty kilometres of the fortifications. Bazaine made a sortie on Saturday last, in which he captured 600 oxen and 500 sheep from the enemy.

The enemy still maintain a strong garrison at Nancy.

TOURS Oct 14.—Prince Frederick Charles is not dead.

Gambetta has issued a proclamation announcing a victory in front of Paris. He exhorts the other provinces to do their duty as Paris has done here.

Gambetta has issued a congratulatory proclamation to the French people, citing the new evidence of courage just given by the Parisians. They are demanding every day to be led in sorties against the enemy. They have already driven the Prussians from the States of Dogny, Pierreville, Joinville, Bibazeny, Creoul, Basmendon and St. Cloud.

Requisitions by the Germans

LONDON Oct 14.—A detachment of 3,000 Germans under command of Prince Albert with artillery are marching on the city of Rouen and are making exhaustive requisitions on the way.

The Prussian Government has ordered an appraisement of the damages done to private property in Strasburg.

The Battle at Orleans—Fighting about Paris.

LONDON Oct 14.—The following advice received here from Tours left that place Wednesday evening. All lines of communication toward Tours are still open. The commander of the 15th corps has made an official report to the Government of the battle before Orleans. He says the fighting was desperate. The Prussian artillery overwhelmed us. For three hours however the enemy was held in check, when a flank movement compelled our retreat, which was effected in perfect order.

The terrible artillery fire of the fort of Mont Valerian has totally swept the country around about for six kilometres. The Prussian works have been destroyed. All the batteries the Prussians have erected against Mont Valerian have been annihilated. On the north the Prussians have been driven back as far as Bevile and Bonnevile. The entire Peninsula around Gennevilles has been freed from Prussians by a strong cavalry reconnoissance and is now in French hands. On the east of Paris a lively cannonade has been maintained towards Bondy. The Prussians have been driven from Champegne for more than three miles east of Vincennes. The Prussian circle around Paris therefore is expanding daily instead of contracting. The French are greatly encouraged. The Prussians report mutiny imminent among the French soldiers at Metz.

Late French Dispatches

TOURS Oct 15.—No official news from Orleans to-day. It is generally understood that sharp fighting occurred there yesterday.

A Paris letter of the 11th has the following: Prussians in force are moving southward and mobiles are following to watch their movements. Several deserters have been put to death. An official order has been issued ordering the silver plate of the Palace to be coined. The Government authorities are manufacturing enormous steel guns to carry 9,000 metres. Much improvement is manifested in Paris by the approach of the Prussians. The Parisians desire above all things to be attacked. As there is no immediate prospect of this, the French are preparing to make a formidable attack on the besiegers.

TOURS Oct 14.—The following is officially published:

The French made a strong reconnoissance to Laferte a few days since. The Prussians were encountered and after a short combat driven off. A Prussian camp has been established at St. Dillon.

MANOTAS Oct 15.—A body of Franc Tireurs attached a squad of Wurtemberg cavalry in the forest of Fontainbleau to-day killing many. The remainder were pursued to Melun. The Prussian garrison there retreated on the approach of the French leaving behind a large amount of provisions and stores.

Garibaldi has arrived at Besançon.

Bourbaki has been appointed to a command near Orleans and gone forward to his post. New Breisach is constantly bombarded. The garrison answers vigorously.

French Obstruct the Railways

LONDON Oct 15.—The Germans attribute the frequency of railway accidents to the French and will hereafter impose contributions on communities where such accidents occur.

The actions between the French and the Prussians during the occupation of Orleans have been very severe.

A New German Loan

BERLIN Oct 15.—The German loan will be for eighty million thalers.

An early meeting of the North German Parliament has been decided upon to make provision for carrying on the war. From eighty to one hundred millions thalers is to be appropriated.

Spain has a King at Last

FLORENCE Oct 15.—Prince Amadeus, with the approval of King Victor Emanuel, has accepted the offer of the Spanish crown.

Amiens Threatened

[illegible] Oct 14.—Amiens is threatened by the Prussians. It is preparing for a vigorous resistance.

The National Guard gallantly but unavailingly defended Epinal and finally retreated toward Virtigny. The Franc Tireurs who were near at hand in force gave them no support and fled on the approach of the enemy without firing a shot.

Seige of Soissons

[illegible] The Prussians have commenced the bombardment of Soissons. The town is prepared to stand a siege.

General Military Movements

[illegible] —A force of [illegible] 000 strong is at Epinal.

Ten trains full of Germans passed the Meuse going to Paris.

[illegible] Oct 14.—The German garrison of Stenay captured by the French from Montmedy numbered only sixty men.

The Prussian videttes retired from the Moselle Guard at Martenay.

[illegible] Bazaine [illegible] and sorties of the garrison are frequent and harass the besiegers.

Military movements of late in the Prussian camps and with the walls of Paris indicate that a great event is imminent.

Agitation in Holland

A special dispatch from Hague says great agitation prevailed upon the discovery that the King was about to declare war with Prussia. There was a row in the King's Cabinet. The King was told he must not take the initiative. The Crown Prince warned the Ministers that if they did not take sides now Holland would regret the inactivity. The Cabinet appealed to the people. Petitions from all parts in favor of giving to the States General and not the King the right to declare war calmed down the feelings of King William. A majority of the population side with the Crown Prince.

The Beleaguered Cities in France

[illegible] Oct 15.—A deserter from Metz reports that bread and salt are entirely exhausted. Plenty of other provisions remain.

The [illegible] Epinal under seven thousand. There are [illegible] Prussians occupy the heights of Soissons. They have fortified them and are in force at Mezly. They have several batteries of [illegible] The Prussian reserves [illegible] ward from the vicinity of [illegible]

The north of France is alive since he [illegible] affair at St Quentin.

A formal siege of Soissons and Verdun has commenced. The fact has already been developed that both fortifications are well supplied with artillery and experienced gunners.

Lieut Gen De Beyer Baden Minister of War has been appointed to command the Baden contingent force.

Prussian earthworks before Fort Mont du Valerian are irksome to the French garrison whose fire is incessant. The Germans generally are passive, and will remain so until all preparations for a general bombardment are completed.

Sorties of the French at Paris have been successfully repelled. A siege train of heavy guns has just arrived before Paris from Germany.

Gen Burnside returned to the Prussian headquarters yesterday. He is expected in Paris again to-morrow.

It is said negotiations looking to peace are going on actively.

Last night an unfounded rumor was circulated to the effect that Gustave Flourens would make a demonstration with his command of National Guards. As a precaution several battalions National Guards were placed in the Hotel de Ville. The Commander in Chief will remove Flourens from his command of five battalions of National Guards.

EASTERN STATES

Secretary Cox Resigns—Attorney General Akerman to Resign—Senator Williams to be Appointed Attorney General

NEW YORK Oct 15.—A Times special from Washington says it is announced that Secretary Cox has tendered his resignation and that the President has accepted the same. Of this there is no doubt. The acceptance is to take effect when the annual report of the Interior Department is finished which will be in the course of thirty days. No one is indicated as his successor. The reasons for withdrawing are understood to be entirely personal. The relations between the President and Secretary Cox are of the most agreeable character.

A Herald correspondent telegraphs that Secretary Cox has resigned, and is to be succeeded by Commissioner Delano and that Attorney General Akerman will resign on account of ill health and that Senator Williams of Oregon will succeed him.

The State and Navy Departments

CHICAGO Oct 15.—A Tribune's Washington special says Grant in speaking of a report that Secretaries Fish and Robeson were to retire from the Cabinet said he was perfectly satisfied with both of them, and if they were satisfied with him there would be no change in either State or Navy Departments.

Another Yacht Race—Yellow Fever Abating

NEW YORK, Oct 14.—The race between the yachts Dauntless and Cambria twenty miles to windward and return was won to-day by the Dauntless by fourteen minutes though the Cambria had the lead at one time by three miles.

Fears of yellow fever are now entirely abating. Three new cases have appeared at Governor's Island but none discovered in the city.

Election Returns—Indiana Doubtful

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct 14.—Very few more returns are received to-day—not definitely enough to settle the question on the State ticket. The Democrats claim 2,000 majority. The Republicans think the official vote may yet give them the State ticket. The Republicans now claim two majority in the Senate. In the House the Democratic majority will not be over five or six.

SOUTH AMERICA.

Rebellion in the Argentine Republic

LISBON Oct 14.—The mail steamer from Rio de Janeiro brings dates to the 22d of September. The Argentine Republic defeated the insurgents in two engagements. There has also been an indecisive struggle between the Montevideans and rebels.

CALIFORNIA

From San Diego—Particulars of the Loss of the Continental

SAN DIEGO Oct 14.—The Panama steamer Colorado landed 206 United States troops at this place to-day, Lieut J. Lawson commanding.

By the Colorado we get the following particulars of the loss of the Continental. On the night of the 9th, the Constitution signaled and notified us of the loss of the Continental and the passengers off Cape St Lucas. On the 10th commenced taking the wrecked passengers, 80 all told, on board the steamer Colorado. All were in a very destitute condition, none of the passengers or crew having saved anything but what was on their persons. The Continental left Mazatlan on her return trip to San Francisco on the 21. On the same night while crossing the Gulf of California, she encountered a severe gale. For some time it blew a perfect hurricane, the wind coming from every quarter of the compass. The ship labored heavily in the heavy chopping seas, several leaks were sprung and for a time the steam pumps kept the leakage under, but the coal boxes parted, letting the coal loose, which getting into the pumps effectually closed them. The passengers and crew commenced bailing and throwing the cargo of salt which was in bulk, hides etc into the sea. They worked incessantly for twelve hours, but were unable to keep the water from rising in the hold until the fires were extinguished. Strong hopes were entertained of saving the vessel. The scene now was said to have been one of the wildest excitement. Some of the passengers threw their gold into the ocean and in despair cried to Heaven for aid. Very few ladies were among the passengers and life preservers were used, on which they jumped into the small boats.

Orders were given to take to the boats during the night of the 12th and remained in close proximity to the steamer until 9 A M when they left her to her fate. It is supposed she went down on the night of the 30th as on the morning of [illegible] last no signs of the vessel were discernible. Don Rul[illegible] of Mazatlan and his daughter were among the passengers. His daughter was safely put in one of the boats, which separated her from her father whom she beseeched to go in her, but he persistently refused to leave the ship and those on board appeared to have clung to the ship with a mad desperation amounting to frenzy. The stewardess was among those who remained on the ship. An American lady with two children could not be induced to go in the boats. A Mexican boy took the two children and jumped overboard and reached the boats with his charges. One sack of crackers and a little apple jelly was all that any of them had during the time that they remained in the boats. The [illegible] picked up three men who were floating on a raft in the vicinity of the wreck. Seven persons perished in the small boats, and one man was crushed between the small boat and the side of the vessel. Of the six boats only three of them landed at St Lucas. The others were driven up the coast, two of them forty-three miles north of the Cape, from where they had to make their way over the burning sands without a drop of water to Cape St Lucas, at which place smuggled [illegible] her kind [illegible] were issued with a liberal hand. At every place the sufferers were kindly cared for. Dr S. Woodbridge Jr of San Francisco attended and nursed those who were in feeble health. Blame is attached to Captain Dall for deserting the ship at night. The carpenter makes the assertion that the timbers of the ship were rotten and unsafe and that she was at any moment liable to go to pieces. Great credit is given to the officers and passengers of the steamer Colorado who divided their clothing with and raised subscriptions for the relief of the sufferers.

Why Not Speak the Truth

Of course Mr. Stout and his political friends in the Legislature, not being absolute fools, expect nobody to believe them when they so solemnly asseverate that they do not pass the bill to deprive the people of Portland of the right of self government as a partisan measure. They do not believe their own words when they say so, nor can they reiterate the statement often enough to cause themselves to believe it. Inasmuch as they have decreed that this measure shall be adopted, it would be much more decent and seemly for them to boldly avow the purpose of it and not attempt to conceal that purpose behind a curtain of falsehood which everybody can see through. There is no need whatever for these clumsy untruths. They do not help Mr Stout and his associates one particle. Every person of either party knows that this measure was conceived as a partisan measure, and is being put through the Legislature as a partisan measure. Does any one suppose it would have been thought of, if Portland had continued to give Democratic majorities and now had a Democratic delegation in the Legislature? Nobody is quite such an idiot as to suppose anything of the kind. The repeated disclaimers of partisan intentions that were uttered in the Senate when the bill passed that body were therefore altogether needless. Every Senator who uttered them uttered what neither himself nor any one else believes, with a design to cover or excuse a proceeding that he knew to be indefensible and unjustifiable. Better, much better, have declared the real object of the bill. It would have been much more direct to have said that since Portland declines to elect Democratic officials she shall not elect any and that the Governor shall appoint them.

The pretense on which this measure is founded is that crime is becoming dangerously frequent in Portland, and that there is security here for neither person nor property. Now it is not true that crime is more frequent here than formerly. There are occasional acts of theft, and robbery, and so there have always been and so there always will be. No town of equal size on the Pacific coast is more free from crime in general, and no town anywhere is more orderly and quiet, as a general rule. When the Governor's creatures are placed in official positions here they will find that there will be occasional acts of crime in in spite of all their vigilance and we shall be greatly mistaken if such acts are not fully as frequent thereafter, as they have been heretofore.

Portland now is quite as orderly as it was two years ago, and there is as much security for person and property now as there was then. Yet the Legislature then did not attempt to deprive Portland of the right of self government. Why? Because Multnomah county had sent a Democratic delegation that year to the Legislature, the city government was Democratic and it was believed by the Democrats that they could hold both the city and county. Therefore they could see no need of such a measure as is now proposed. On the contrary they so amended the charter as to make several officers of the city elective by popular vote who had previously been elected by the Common Council. Then they were in favor of government by the people in the widest sense of the term. But so soon as they lost the city government and the county sent a Republican delegation to the Legislature, they discovered that government here by the people was all wrong and must not be tolerated. It was a menace and a danger to Democratic ascendency in the State government, "every department of which is Democratic," and must therefore be put down.

We are not protesting against this measure of determined partisanship, for we should disdain to protest in a case where we know that no protest would be heeded. We have simply thought it not amiss to state a few facts in a plain way, and to remark that Mr Stout and others who, from the moment this city and county went Republican, resolved on this proceeding, are not doing themselves any credit by setting up the pretense that they are not actuated in the matter by partisan motives. They would better go forward and do what they have resolved to do without attempting to justify by any such bold tergiversations. If they would say that inasmuch as Portland won't elect Democratic officials, they are determined to so arrange it that Democratic officials may be appointed by the Governor, for use in future elections, they would speak the truth, and everybody would believe them.

A so-called Democratic paper up the Wallamet valley a few days ago said that the OREGONIAN had no right to complain of the Legislature for taking away from Portland the control of its local affairs, because "to deny the supremacy of the Legislature in this matter spoils your (our) theory that the Congress of the United States is the supreme source of the Government of the States!" We did not condescend to notice this poor parr try when it came out in the feeble organ that originated it. But a correspondent of the Herald quotes it and says our objections are "well answered" by it. As "well answered" no doubt as they could be by a silly lie of Democratic fabrication. Neither this paper nor any other that we ever heard of has propounded the theory that "Congress is the supreme source of government of the States." That is an extent of "centralization" that no Republican ever dreamed of. But it appears that Democrats would go to this length since they regard their action in taking the government of Portland out of the hands the people as on a par with it.

In the State of Indiana the contest between the two parties has for several years been closer than in any of the other great States. The reason is that Indiana has received a greater proportionate increase of population from the South than any other one of the neighboring States and fewer Germans who are nearly all Republicans. It requires unity of action and a determined effort on the part of the Republicans of Indiana to win. In October 1868, they carried the State by only about 900 majority, though Gen Grant carried it the month following by about 10 000. In the election just held the State is close, both parties claiming it. The great feature this year is the large number of independent Republican tickets throughout the State. Such tickets were run in nearly one third of the counties and greatly aided the Democrats. In a national contest, when local issues drop out of sight, there is no reason to doubt that the Republicans can carry Indiana by a good majority.

The tax levy in Wasco county is 3½ per cent. That comes of being so very Democratic.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT]

SALEM, Saturday Evening, Oct 15.

THE STATE FAIR—REFORMS NEEDED

There are some matters connected with the State Fair and a few things not connected but which ought to be about which I shall take the liberty to speak. I am satisfied that any just criticism will be received kindly by the officers and members of the Society and that they will be willing to adopt such practical suggestions as may be made in this letter or otherwise. Many things can only be learned by experiment or by the tailor's rule of "cut and try." Some things in the management of the State Fair have been cut and tried and found not to fit. First in the matter of entries, there seems to me to be a radical defect. Perhaps I may not be able to point out a remedy, but there is nothing more certain than that the present method of keeping the entry books creates great confusion and mistakes are constantly occurring. For instance in the class of horses there are no less than eight subdivisions in each of which are several different sorts of premiums offered. As exhibitors arrive they are put down in the books in the order of their arrival without regard to the subdivision in which they may desire to exhibit. Thus we have entries of "horses of all work," "trotting" carriage horses, "sucking colts," "jacks jennets and mules," "thorough breds" etc etc all mixed together. When the books go to the committees it is next to impossible to learn from them who has made entries or who is entitled to exhibit. It is frequently claimed by some exhibitor that another has not complied with all the requirements of the Society. The books show nothing in regard to the matter, and hence there are pow wows delays, hurry scurrying of Marshals from the field to the Secretary's office confusion, frequent discontents and complaints of unfair treatment. I suggest that it would be just as easy to have the books so prepared as to group the entries—"horses of all work," or "carriage horses," or "thoroughbreds," as the case may be each by themselves. Columns might be prepared to show under the general subdivision head the name of the exhibitor, the name of the animal entered whether stallion, mare colt etc age premium contended for entry when made entry fee paid or unpaid, and so on through all the requirements. Then room should be left for the committee's report on each separate contest. With such an arrangement mistakes and confusion would seldom occur. All I have said in regard to the horse class is equally applicable to all others. There should be a clerk, too, for each class, with a separate desk, properly designated so that exhibitors need never to be at a loss where or to whom to go for the transaction of business.

THE EXHIBITORS SHOULD BE KNOWN

In regard to articles or animals exhibited a reform is needed in this respect. The attachment of the names of the exhibitors distinctive name of the article or animal, residence of the exhibitor, etc., etc., so that the visitor may get some information, and find something about which his or her interests may hover. Perhaps it might be well enough to defer attaching such cards till the premiums are awarded, but it should by all means be done as early in the Fair as possible. Under the present plan a person may enquire all through the Fair who made a certain blanket or who raised a certain sample of wheat, and finally go home Saturday night no wiser than when he entered the pavilion on Monday. I know of one instance where a lady made enquiries every day for the exhibitor of a certain garden product, with a view of getting some seeds of it. The Superintendent could not tell the entry book could not at first be had, and when finally it was obtained no information could be had from it except that about a dozen individuals had entered in the same class. The task of finding among all these in such a crowd, the right person, was too much for the lady, and she gave it up. Then in regard to horses, cattle, sheep, etc., as matters are now managed, the visitor sees that certain animals have blue ribbons and others red ribbons attached, and that is all. He knows nothing in regard to the breed, the age the exhibitor or the conditions of the contest by which the animal obtained its distinction. People want to know all about these things in order to be interested. Then, if exhibitors of premium animals or articles are to be unknown, where, pray, is the incentive to exhibit? This system of keeping everything dark is, in my opinion, one of the principal reasons why the fair has not grown any for the last few years. Let it be known that the names of successful competitors will be published on the spot, in the way I have indicated, or in printed bulletins, and the number of exhibitions will be greatly multiplied at once.

OFFICIAL REPORTERS NEEDED

Thus far the only published reports of the State Fair, during its progress, have been obtained by private enterprise. Reporters have always had to depend for their facts upon personal observation rarely being able in the hurry of business to get information from officers of the society. The officers are always willing to tell what they know, but they are always hurried and not always to be found. Only the other day, being absent from a certain trial—there were a half dozen others going on at the same time—I inquired diligently a whole day, but never could learn the result. The superintendent did not know the judges were picked up on the ground no report was made in the proper book and so the trial went unnoticed. Many another trial and competition went unnoticed for similar reasons. The society and the public are interested in having current full and correct reports of the fairs. To the end that such reports may be furnished the society should employ a competent reporter give him a sufficient number of messengers or sub reporters to look after everything that is going on and let him furnish each evening a concise report to whatever daily newspapers will pay for and publish it. The thing could be done very satisfactorily, by the introduction of a little system in the management of business, and it need not be very expensive.

CERTAIN NUISANCES

During the entire fair the flying dust was a most intolerable nuisance. An expenditure of three or four hundred dollars in sprinkling would have greatly abated it. The society could afford to run a half dozen or a dozen sprinklers constantly on the grounds about the Pavilion, on the track and the roads near the grounds, and it ought to have done it. From my own observation I am prepared to say that more than $500 stayed away from the fair grounds on account of the intolerable dust.

Next year the society should be amply prepared for either dust or rain. In case of either dry or wet weather plank walks in certain places are much needed. Nothing can be lost in a liberal expenditure in fitting up everything pleasant and comfortable.

The nuisance of small shows ought to be abolished. They are nearly all of them arrant humbugs and the merest catch penny affairs, which carry off thousands of dollars without rendering any equivalent. Auctioneers who go tearing around on horseback are another nuisance. Shows and swings and such like things are making fearful inroads upon the beautiful grove at the north end of the enclosure. If they multiply for a few years as in the past they will eventually destroy it. Why not keep all swings and shows outside the enclosure.

There are a few other things in this connection about which I may have something to say here after.

THE LEGISLATURE

This body has thus far accomplished but little except to turn out Republican members. An extra session to follow on the heels of this is talked of. Thus far the principal things accomplished are essentially bad for the best interests of the State and as an extra session would only be fruitful of similar results it would be deplorable if one should be called. The State would be put to great additional expense and the land jobbers and grabbers would be able to carry out their several schemes for gobbling the 500 000 acres of school lands, one of which will fail this session for want of time. There is no reason why all necessary legislation could not have been accomplished in forty days.

From the Albany Register. Rev Wm Adams, Colporteur of the Linn County Bible Society has made report of services in canvassing the county from which we extract as follows. The report closes with September 30 1870. He spent fifty eight days in canvassing received $2 50 as donations donated to destitute families and individuals testaments and bibles to the value of $1 sold bibles and testaments to the amount of $65 50 found and supplied thirty seven families who were destitute of the scriptures and visited 205 families.

A strong northwestern breeze a few days ago had the effect of driving back the waters of Link river (a stream about the size of Rogue river) into Klamath Lake so as to leave the stream almost entirely dry, and gave the people residing there an opportunity to pick up all the fish they wanted.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

Prussians Falling Back to Laon

LONDON Oct 15—The Prussians have retired from Breteuil to Laon.

The Orleans Princes in the Army

TOURS Oct 15—The Journal reports that the Orleans Princes have been enrolled in the army now forming at Rouen.

More Fighting near Paris

On the 10th a splendid fight took place at Bagneux and Chatillon where the enemy was dislodged. During a reconnoissance of our forces the enemy sustained considerable losses. General Dampbier commander of the Aube mobiles was killed at the head of his command. The Prussian batteries were dismantled at Duck. Our troops withdrew to their line in admirable order according to a preconcerted plan. The sailors in Fort Montrouge covered their retreat. The chateau of St Cloud was destroyed by fire from the forts.

Rumor of Surrender of Prussian Forces at Orleans

TOURS Oct 15 Evening—The rumors from Orleans are startling. It is asserted that the Prussians there, who are known to be in large force surrendered to the French with all their artillery. The French forces are continually increasing. The Government authorities here have given public notice that there has been nothing received from Orleans for a day or two. A small force of Prussians occupy Bourges.

Austrian Affairs

VIENNA Oct 15—The Emperor in a letter convokes the Austrian and Hungarian delegations at Pesth November 21st.

Destructive Fire in Liverpool

LONDON, Oct 15—A fire occurred in the rigging shop of Messrs Laird at Liverpool, which destroyed property of great value. Ten thousand operatives are temporarily thrown out of employment.

Precautions against Surprises.

LONDON Oct 15—An official decree issued to day orders before a Court Martial all Generals or other commanders of troops who are surprised by the enemy.

The Spanish Throne.

LONDON Oct 15—The telegram given to the public to day by the Lombard street news room is generally discredited, stating that Prince Amadeus has consented to accept the Spanish throne and Victor Emanuel has given his adhesion to the scheme.

LONDON Oct 15—The following is given as the result of the first day's bombardment of New Brissach. 7 persons killed 21 wounded, and 10 buildings burned. The place is well provisioned, and the garrison is obstinate in its defence.

Paris to be Bombarded

NEW YORK, Oct 15—The bombardment of Paris has been resolved on as a necessity. The environs of the city whence the bombardment must take place are uneven and difficult of access hence the official announcement that nothing decisive can be hoped for before three weeks.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 16—Most High Bishop John, of the Greek Church coming out as Bishop of San Francisco arrived from Russia last night and was welcomed with great eclat by his co religionists. Bishop Paul, of Alaska, was among those who took part in the proceedings.

SAN FRANCISCO Oct 16—A norther continued blowing heavily all day and last night. No serious damage was done along the wharves. It has now subsided and the weather is intensely dry and warm.

The steamship Colorado entered port early this morning bringing regular passengers and survivors of the wreck of the Continental. The following were passengers: Albin P Hovey, A S Sutherland, J Watkins Amejia and wife, John Kelly R R Symons Frederic Trounia Josel Carro, Guadelupe Sanchez Wm Lund D P Greene, C Berendt, A Superior M Atabi, J Hutchinson A B Smith E Putomer, G Murry wife & two children Ann Mere Miss M Pray, S N Stone, Robert Turnbull Wm Mcelintish H S Brooks, R Pendegrast, Pedro Morales, N Cavayal, C Tauarea, Wm Broodrick, Joseph Meigs, M George, Wm Simpson Mr A Farrand and wife Peter Morner A J hisen. Most of the above were on the Continental.

The steamer Senator from San Diego and the Great Republic from China and Japan, came in nearly at the same time. The latter brings full freight including 1,000 pkgs tea, 353 of silk and 152 packages of merchandise. She had about 80 cabin passengers, including three Japanese officials of high rank, with 18 servants, bound for Europe 19 of high rank for New York and five for San Francisco, and 100 Chinese in the steerage. It is said that the Japanese brings abundance of money and are sent abroad to be educated. The Republic had rough weather all the passage. He larboard wheelhouse was badly smashed by the waves.

Passengers by the Continental blame Captain Dall severely, claiming that had he stood firmly at his post to the last, no lives need have been lost. His was the first boat ashore. One passenger asserts that Capt Dall left the steamer without his compass and money, and that a sailor swam off to him with them, when he took them from him but ordered the sailor to swim back to the ship which he did, but escaped in another boat. The Captain's boat was the third to leave the ship and three others left subsequently. The boats remained near the vessel all night, and at 2 o clock next day one went near enough to hail the passengers remaining on board and told them to throw themselves into the sea and they would save them, but they were so afraid of the sharks which swarmed around all the boats that they refused to leave. Senor Rubio, the rich Mexican whose daughter was saved, determined to remain by his money, and did so until the vessel went down, and he perished with it. The rescued all speak of being treated very hospitably by the Mexicans and by the American Consul at San Jose.

NEVADA.

TRUCKEE Oct 16—A saw mill with a large quantity of lumber in this vicinity owned by E. Elton is entirely destroyed by fire. Loss estimated at $15 000. The town was at one time threatened but owing to the efforts of the citizens the fire was confined to the mill and lumber. The fire was the work of an incendiary. No insurance.

MONTANA.

HELENA, Oct, 15—Godford Kanselbach, about 24 years of age was killed this morning in Union quartz mine near here by a car which broke loose while ascending an incline heavily loaded.

A snow storm occurred yesterday at Deer Lodge and Virginia City.

To day the remains of Maj Steinberger were taken to Fort Shaw.

Persons connected with the so called vigilance committee which killed McDaniel and Gibson in Pierce county, W T, early last spring, will be brought to trial before the District Court there this week.

An Olympia paper says: Thirty of the German emigrants lately from Chicago we are informed by Gov Salmon, have taken claims on the Muckelshute in Pierce county where they propose to build a small town.

The Vancouver Register has begun its sixth volume. It says: Passing in safety through the dangerous period of babyhood having been proof against soothing syrup and debilitating nostrums generally it sal es forth this morning, free from leading strings and shouting triumphantly "see my new boots."

From the Seattle paper of the 11th: The amount of travel on the different steamers plying on the Sound is of late assuming huge proportions. Whether it is owing to a greater influx of strangers in our midst, or that our own citizens are availing themselves of the cheap rates of fare—as 25 cents will take one almost anywhere—we are not advised; probably it is a little of both causes which tend to such a result. Yesterday the steamers must have carried down the Sound at least 250 persons.

[illegible]—The cars were again loaded [illegible] with people from Salem There are yet [illegible] people to come we learn

TENTH ANNUAL STATE FAIR

Sixth Day

SALEM Saturday Oct 15

The Fair practically ended last evening Exhibitors who could conveniently do so quite generally went for their property and took it away Many of the classes, at an early hour this morning look as though a hurricane or something of that sort had come along and left the place and booths a more wreck The racing business has been going on actively all day and the pavilion at 3 o'clock was the most desolate looking place imaginable deserted by both people and adornments littered with paper straw dirt, and vegetable debris The few persons who still lingered longingly about the place looked for all the world like uneasy spirits just escaped from some very dirty graveyard The only signs of active life visible about the place were around the desk of the Clerks and Treasurer Here there had been a [illegible] and some all day premium takers were after their coin The rush was so great that at an early hour the society clerks were compelled to fence off a passage like one of your city polling places and compel the applicants to come to the desk one at a time At dark the place was still besieged by more people than could possibly be attended to in an hour while many after waiting for hours had fallen out of their places and postponed their part of the premium taking business till a more convenient season Their camp grounds wore the same deserted and wrecked appearance It was almost wonderful that a place which was so crowded with animated life at morning of the [illegible] should be so deserted and desolated at the sun's going down Of all the vast crowd on the grounds last night none remained at dark to day but the few whose business with the Fair kept them till the last moment of closing out for the season A few horsemen and now and then the keeper of a trading or drinking booth I think I never saw a sadder looking place in my life unless it were a dismantled and desecrated cemetery

Taking it all in all, the Fair has been a successful one—financially it has been the best the Society has ever had The exhibition of articles in the pavilion was comparatively respectable while the show of good stock was far better than ever before, and better than any one had reason to anticipate The farmer's department proper was the only failure It seems indeed singular in a country where so much attention is paid to machinery and improvements in farm implements there should be so few of such things on exhibition

The races announced for this afternoon were failures There was no running race at all and the trotting match was an insignificant affair not worth reporting There was very little of the usual scrub racing on Saturday afternoon Heretofore this has been quite a feature of the Fair

The President and Marshals are entitled to great credit for the orderly manner in which the Fair has been conducted There has been very little drunkenness or disorderly conduct of any kind

The few disturbers of the peace who have shown themselves have been promptly arrested or ejected from the grounds A young man who had been selling cigars tobacco, etc during the Fair insulted some young ladies this afternoon and came near getting lynched for it A crowd gathered around his booth and kept him a prisoner until a Marshal arrived When the officers came, it was not thought safe to take him out till a stronger posse could be had to protect him from the crowd He was finally taken out by three or four deputies thrust into a hack and driven rapidly away Even then a half dozen or more men who had been in favor of lynching the poor scared fellow, followed the hack upon a full run How far they pursued, I could not say as they were soon lost in the hooting crowd That young man will not try anything again in the "smart Aleck" style with Webfoot girls

A serious runaway occured this afternoon A six horse team belonging to the circus was in the act of turning around to drive off when the king bolt of the wagon broke letting the fore wheels go from under the forward end of the loaded wagon box The driver was thrown off and the team thus at liberty strarted upon a furious run through the ground so lately crowded with human life One of the wheel horses soon got clear of the harness and leading pole went scouring off by himself The other wheel horse was thrown down and dragged by the four leading horses from near the start to the road outside the middle north gate He was fearfully cut and bruised but singularly enough was not killed The frightened horses finally ran into the brush got tangled and had to stop

Fortunately and almost miraculously nobody was hurt by the stampede. The forepart of the wagon however was badly stove up The several reports of men shot, killed, etc which have from time to time startled the crowd, I am happy to say, have each and all proved sensational and false I have not learned of a single serious accident on the ground during the entire Fair

My report yesterday of the total receipts of the Fair was above the actual figure The amount stated was given to me by Mr Moores the Treasurer but he found subsequently that he had made an error in adding The exact sum of receipts is not yet known but it will not be far from $12,000 The railroad train went away at 4 30 this afternoon with five passenger and a platform car densely crowded with people en route for home There are still many Portland people here to go down to morrow.

THE OREGON LEGISLATURE

Sixth Biennial Session

Senate—Morning Session

The Senate was called to order at 8 30 by President Fay

All the members were present except Brown of Marion and Moores absent on leave

The journal of yesterday was read and approved

Mr [illegible] Judiciary Committee [illegible] H B [illegible]

Mr Strahan [illegible] Judiciary Committee re[illegible] Also a report [illegible] the same [illegible]

Mr Crawford [illegible] the Committee [illegible] H B [illegible]

Mr Baldwin [illegible] reported S B No 34 [illegible]

Mr [illegible] reported recommending [illegible] and provide [illegible] cents per [illegible]

SPECIAL ORDER

S B [illegible] the [illegible] later [illegible] A M [illegible]

The Senate [illegible] S B [illegible] all necessary [illegible] of the swamp and overflowed land in this State

Mr [illegible] a plea [illegible]

Mr [illegible] different [illegible] that [illegible] of the [illegible]

Mr B[illegible] after [illegible] of the Senate [illegible] Lane [illegible]

Mr C[illegible] that [illegible] dollar per acre [illegible] the Legislature [illegible] State [illegible] Calif[illegible]

Mr Burch [illegible] acre but [illegible] the best [illegible] of the State he to day agreed 5 cents per acre

Mr [illegible] moved to strike out 5 cents and insert one dollar

On [illegible] of Mr [illegible] the Senate was ordered Absent Mr Moores [illegible] leave and Mr Brown of Marion [illegible] several [illegible]

Mr Baldwin [illegible]

The [illegible] side [illegible] the swamp lands [illegible] California [illegible] Congress [illegible] to prevent the growth [illegible] State [illegible] The State had already [illegible] the saline lands by a [illegible] seventy five cents be regarded as sufficient for [illegible] extensive works [illegible] the Columbia to reclaim the swamp lands

Mr Thompson thought the Senator was mistaken about the lands along [illegible] the Columbia [illegible] surveyed and [illegible] settle them [illegible] under [illegible] they were not held [illegible]

The President was aware that a great portion of the coast and Columbia river lands were surveyed [illegible] for the Senator from Clackamas [illegible] making the survey [illegible] survey [illegible] as swamp lands [illegible] swamp and calling them lakes That is the case with Klamath Lake as he was informed by Mr Applegate.

Mr Thompson—The gentleman is mistaken The Klamath Lake was somewhat meandered in the survey but only the main lake returned as such The swamp was returned as overflowed land

Mr President had reference to Klamath Lake and swamp land around it and not to the second Klamath or swamp as reported

Mr Stout understood that this bill authorized the sale of tide and the overflowed lands at the same price, he thought that all lands [illegible] worth anything are worth one dollar per acre After the admission of the State she became entitled to the swamp and overflowed lands also by eminent domain to the tide lands he referred to the probable value of the land at the mouth of Columbia river for wharves and other purposes This objection to disposing of tide lands would not apply to that [illegible] the region of Klamath Lake

Mr Baldwin agreed with the Senator from Multnomah that there should be a distinction between the price of tide and overflowed lands but disagreed as to all the swamp land being worth one dollar per acre He knew that the cost of making those lands in California available for cultivation was often more than the worth after they had been reclaimed It often requiring extensive ditches and a great outlay of money

On motion of President Fay this bill was made the special order for 10 A M Monday and to consider [illegible] the Committee of the Whole

Mr Trevitt from the Committee on Engrossment reported S B 84 truly engrossed

SPECIAL ORDER.

S B No 5—to attach Tillamook [illegible] judicial purposes and to define the boundary between Tillamook and Clatsop was taken from the table

Mr Newby had after examination of the map found it impossible to locate the boundary by section lines The mouth of the Nehalem river is not properly located

Mr Thompson thought the mouth of the river properly located on the map

Mr Newby—The object he wished was to define where the Nehalem Valley is—whether in Clatsop or Tillamook and believed it convenient to the citizens there to be in Tillamook

Mr Cornelius thought the amendment not definite If the Nehalem river was fixed as the boundary then all south of that stream would know that they were in Tillamook and all north in Clatsop He wanted the people to have some means to know what county they were in

Mr Cochran thought the Senator might agree by taking the farthest point east on that cape

Mr Newby—The representative from Clatsop desired to start at the mouth of Nehalem river That would leave all the settlements in Clatsop He (Mr Newby desired to start from the cape and leave the settlements in Tillamook

Mr Cornelius—Judge Olney representing Clatsop and Tillamook counties, had introduced a bill which passed the House, desiring that the settlements should be in Clatsop He thought it something peculiar that the Senator from Yamhill took so much interest in this matter and the Judge Olney did not know what his constituents desired

Mr Stout did not see the propriety or reason of the Senator from Washington's objection

Mr Newby offered an amendment to the amendment that the line commence at the extreme western point of the cape, which was adopted and the first amendment adopted by a party vote the Democrats voting aye and the Republicans nay

On motion of Mr Newby the bill was ordered engrossed and made the special order for Monday

Mr Strahan introduced S B No 65—to protect oyster beds and salmon fisheries, (an amendment to the existing law setting apart at Yaquina certain lands for private purposes two acres the amount proposed)

Mr Hendershott introduced S B No 69—to make additions to the State Library The bill appropriates $1 000 for that purpose

Also, by Mr Hendershott S B No 70—to increase the school tax to four mills

Mr Newby introduced S B No 71—to regulate contests of elections

BILLS READ SECOND TIME

S B 59 to prevent conspiracies was read the second time

Mr Burch moved to suspend the rules and read the third time now

Mr Cochran moved to refer the bill to the Judiciary Committee

Mr Trevitt moved to amend by referring to the Committee on the Penitentiary

The bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee

SPECIAL ORDER—THE INSANE ASYLUM

The report of the committee was read

Mr Cornelius inquired if the committee had reported a bill

Mr Baldwin stated that he had a joint resolution to offer

The President moved to adopt the report

Mr Trevitt made a motion to insert six years instead of four

Mr Cornelius thought a bill should have been reported and said he desired to hear the resolution read

Mr Trevitt withdrew his motion and moved to strike out all after the resolution which is the suggestion of the committee

Mr Hendershott called for the reading of the joint resolution It empowers the Governor to contract with Dr Hawthorne at $8 00 per week for each person during the next two years

Mr Cornelius moved to substitute the resolution for the report

Mr Stout thought the best way would be to act on the resolution and [illegible] It was unnecessary to take up time examining the report when direct action could be had

Mr Trevitt called attention to the provision in the report recommending the erection of buildings in a specified time He was willing to withdraw his motion and favor the resolution

Mr Baldwin could not see the necessity of adopting or [illegible] the report [illegible] more expeditious to act on [illegible]

The President pro tem ruled the motion of the Senator from Washington county [illegible]

Mr Fay moved to lay the report on the table

Mr Stout—Will [illegible] take the whole resolution with it

Mr Trevitt The report and the resolution are separate

Mr Cochran thought that if [illegible] the subject [illegible]

President Fay—Then [illegible] afterward

Mr Baldwin—I [illegible]

Mr Stout—All [illegible] the subject would [illegible] will be laid on the table

Mr Trevitt [illegible] appeal from the decision of the presiding officer Mr Miller

The appeal was sustained

[illegible]

Mr Stout moved to take [illegible] special order for 10 A M Monday

Mr Crawford The committee cannot report by the time indicated

Mr Burch—They might submit a proposition to the Senate

Mr Newby had voted to recommit for the reason that he supposed that the committee could present their report on Monday

Mr Thompson As a member of the committee [illegible] by bringing all the papers before the Senate

Mr Baldwin thought the Senate portion of the committee if they could get the papers now in the hands of the Secretary could report on Monday

Mr Cochran desired to state his reasons for having voted

Mr Hendershott [illegible] the ques[illegible]

Mr Cochran referred [illegible] Dr Hawthorne [illegible]

[illegible]

As the hour was [illegible] postponed [illegible] Monday

Mr [illegible] Monday

Mr Trevitt [illegible] and [illegible] Wednesday [illegible]

Mr Stout [illegible] prepare [illegible]

Mr Burch [illegible] proposition [illegible]

[illegible] would want to hear the evidence [illegible]

[illegible] was made the special order of 10 A M Monday

On motion of Mr Burch the Senate took from the table S B 34 was taken from the table

President Fay asked the proponent to make the ad[illegible] of the Senate [illegible] to apply falling [illegible]

Mr [illegible] that there was a mistake [illegible] the bill [illegible]

[illegible] by the Legislature [illegible] in accordance with a motion made by the Senator from Wasco [illegible] the temporary President [illegible] President Fay [illegible] and by making the section He was opposed to giving a Governor as much power as was proposed by [illegible]

President Fay [illegible] this bill was [illegible] and whether it would not legislate the present officers out of office

Mr Stout replied that it would remove the present [illegible] and that few of the law abiding citizens [illegible] the present rule that it was not necessary [illegible] state in the Senate that depredations were being [illegible] New York [illegible] Louis and other [illegible] to admit that [illegible] had favored [illegible] commissioners [illegible] These appointees were subject to the man appointing them [illegible] the city elections The [illegible] defeated [illegible] drives to our State After the State [illegible]

Mr Powell did not [illegible] a few [illegible] why he should vote against [illegible] the bill [illegible] he had [illegible] he would do nothing [illegible] with their own case and [illegible] that to be the case [illegible] He did not expect [illegible] the bill was a [illegible] and obnoxious that [illegible] the Senate would [illegible] to repeal the [illegible] of the people and thus declare the [illegible] incapable of self government Referring to the amendment two years ago he said the people desired them to choose their officers but the next election had gone Republican [illegible] he did not know but that was the case and now [illegible] to the choice of the people

Mr [illegible]—In relation to [illegible] two years ago he called the attention of the [illegible] to the fact that they [illegible] would not [illegible] the last two years had convinced him of the wrong in making the change Robberies are perpetrated daily that are not published [illegible] persons are [illegible] into places of ill repute and rather than [illegible] published about it This bill will greatly assist in protecting travelers and in keeping down that [illegible] were to [illegible] of late so numerous in Portland

Mr Powell thought the Senator was mistaken about the number of robberies [illegible] the Senator [illegible] the [illegible] supposed [illegible] the officers honest and believed the present Marshal a good one though he knew he was an Irishman He thought [illegible]

President Fay inquired whether [illegible] of the gentleman [illegible] the Marshal [illegible]

Mr Powell [illegible] not [illegible] but he had [illegible] the Marshal [illegible]

Mr Moshe [illegible] there were many objectionable features to this bill but was willing to [illegible] at last accounts had patrolled Portland for some time, and he would yield his political and legal scruples to the [illegible] which evidently existed in the city of Portland He was willing to give the protection needed.

President Fay believed it to be the general impression that Portland [illegible] the State the grand [illegible] and as such it was proper to make [illegible]

Mr Baldwin would vote for the bill [illegible] for partisan grounds but because it was [illegible] that they were inefficient; and he would vote for the bill if the Governor was a Republican [illegible] the police depended on those appointing them

Mr Strahan would [illegible] partisan grounds but he had [illegible] read the [illegible] and from it [illegible] were not safe now in the [illegible] would conduce to that end

Mr Powell referred to the Herald [illegible] that [illegible] at the Fair ground of the [illegible] He said there were [illegible] possible officers [illegible] Portland [illegible] whole [illegible] Republicans [illegible] who were elected by four hundred majority last June yet this body had overcome nearly as large majorities as this would [illegible]

Mr Newby explained that not only [illegible] prominent Republicans had desired the passage of this bill and he voted for it [illegible] to be necessary [illegible] the welfare of the citizens of Portland.

The bill passed by a strict party vote [illegible] members present Absent Brown (of Marion) and Moores

On motion adjourned until 2 P M

Afternoon Session

At the request of Mr Hendershott leave of absence was granted to Mr Thompson this afternoon Also at the request of Mr Stout Mr Powell was granted leave of absence for this afternoon

THIRD READING OF BILLS

S B 12—to [illegible] canal and locks at the Willamette Falls was read

Mr B[illegible] desired to offer an amendment providing that if the [illegible] any other company might avail itself of the privilege [illegible]

President Fay [illegible]

Mr B[illegible] of Portland and Senator Kelly and [illegible]

President Fay thought the grant should be placed so that [illegible] complete for the benefit He desired to vote for the bill but [illegible] were as yet unnamed and he was not satisfied of the policy [illegible]

Mr Stout saw the propriety of designating a particular [illegible] asked the Senate to grant appro[illegible] was named, he believed that the means would be delayed another two years and [illegible]

Mr Baldwin believed it necessary to designate a company [illegible] take effect [illegible]

Mr Burch for the information of the Senator from Jackson [illegible] that there was [illegible] to the House [illegible] to give the subsidy to the East Side [illegible] to the West Side [illegible] interested [illegible] per bushel and greatly [illegible]

President Fay said he was [illegible] the Willamette Valley [illegible]

Let us Discuss the Great Question

What is the most important of all earthly blessings the estimation of every intelligent human being

Clearly it is Health for sound ness of body and mind is essential to the enjoyment of all the other good gifts of Providence

How then shall those who possess this [illegible] ensure and strive to preserve it and how shall those who have lost it seek to recover it

These questions have been asked in all ages but never have they been as satisfactorily responded to as at the present day and the answers which common sense enlightened by science and experience gives to the [illegible] Nineteenth Century may be briefly stated thus

To protect the system against all the [illegible] to generate disease there is nothing like [illegible]

To re-establish the health [illegible] has been lost by imprudence or any [illegible] the system must be simultaneously [illegible] regulated and [illegible] first

These ends can only be attained through the [illegible] of a preparation which combines the attributes of a tonic a [illegible] a blood depurent and an aperient

All these essentials are effectually blended in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters They contain nothing but [illegible] irritating or inflammatory The juices and extracts [illegible]

The weak and feeble and especially those suffering from bilious [illegible] indigestion and nervousness [illegible]

VARIETIES.

Iowa is to have a new State Capitol, costing $1,500,000.

New Orleans has a cotton factory running 3,300 spindles.

A man aged 86 is cutting a new set of teeth in New Orleans.

Tonawanda (Ill.) has just decided to become a city by a vote of 27 to 4.

A woman in Catoosa county (Georgia) is reported to have recently shouted herself to death under the influence of excessive religious excitement.

Twelve bridesmaids, twelve groomsmen and twelve ushers are to marry a couple in New York next month in a church where the decorations are to cost over $8,000.

"Sir," said an astonished landlady to a traveler who had just sent his cup forward for the seventh time, "you must be very fond of coffee." "Yes madame, I am," he replied, "or I should never have drank so much water to get a little."

A hog entered a grocery store in Brunswick (Missouri) recently, when a dog attacked him, bit off his tail, and then seized the hog by the ear and led it shrieking back to its quarters in the rear. The dog then returned to the store, picked up the tail and carried it out to the hog.

The Mexican claims, with all the accompanying documents, piled up would make a very respectable public building. There are nearly 1,100 on one side, and 1,000 claims on the other. The total amount of claims of American citizens against Mexico, including that of the Woodhouse Tehuantepec Company, is $357,907,519.

Who would have believed three months ago that at this time in all the kiosks, or newspaper shops, of Paris, a caricature should be offered for sale representing the Emperor Napoleon III. blacking the King of Prussia's shoes, or another of the Empress Eugenie issuing from the Tuileries loaded with bandboxes like a milliner's apprentice? These things are not creditable to French taste, but they enforce a lesson of universal application, which it may profit ordinary people to take to heart, as well as Emperors and Kings.

The Springfield Republican says that about half the $2,000 needed for the support of the three scientific men who propose to spend the coming winter on the summit of Mount Washington (New Hampshire) has already been raised, and the remainder will doubtless be soon obtained. They expect to be snowed in at the Tip Top House, from December till March, but will maintain daily communication with the lower world by telegraph. The room which they intend to occupy is to be lined with felt, and they expect to use twenty tons of coal during the winter.

In Indiana a husband, after a spree, was led home by one of his friends, who, after posing him safely on his door-steps, rang the bell and retreated somewhat deviously to the opposite side of the street, to see if it would be answered. Promptly the "porte" was "ouverted," and the fond spouse, who had waited up for her truant, beheld him in his toddiness. "Why, Walter, is this you?" "Yes, my dear." "What in the world kept you out so?" "Been out on a little turn with boys, my dei-arling." "Why, Walter, you are intoxicated!" "Y-y-es, dear, I estimate that's so." "What on earth made you get so drunk? And why—oh, why do you come home to me in this dreadful state?" "Because, my darling, all th' other places 'r' shut up!"

THE BRAMO SOMAJ.—There is just now arising, in India, a most remarkable religious sect which bids fair to wield a vast influence over the teeming millions of the East. The apostles of this new religion seem to be permeated with all the zeal and activity which characterize our best missionaries. Wherever they go the eyes of the more intelligent natives of India seem to be opened to see that there is but one living and true God, and that idols are indeed no gods at all. Last year sixteen churches were formed. The headquarters of the new religion is Calcutta; but such an earnest spirit of propagandism is manifested that already a thousand miles off, in the Valley of Cashmere, has a church of those believers been formed. They have planted "churches of the one God" throughout Bengal, throughout the northwest provinces, the Punjaub, Bombay and Madras, in which they say "hundreds congregate, week after week, to worship the Holy God in spirit and in truth."

The great quickening and greatly increased culture of the better class of people in India are largely owing to the missionary schools, where a free education is proffered to India youths, but where students often come determined not to be converted to the Christian religion. It is very evident, however, should this new religious sect become as powerful as many predict it will become, and should the worship of idols be discountenanced by the better and more influential classes of India, that a wondrous open door would be presented to the missionary. Indeed, the active propagandists of this new religious sect may be looked upon in no other light than so many "John the Baptists," acting as forerunners of the missionary who follows closely after to proclaim the true Gospel.

The Pickled Watch.

The other day we met Wiggins, and he had a silver cased watch—hunting case at that. We had known Wiggins five and twenty years, and never knew him to carry a watch before. We asked him where he got it. He gave us a nod and a leer, and said he would tell us.

"Last fall," he commenced, "I killed the old brindle cow, and put the best part of her into the beef barrel. She was fat, and the beef was nice, and I had nigh unto a full barrel. I didn't want to make it very salty, so I set it out in the shed, where the frost might touch it, and keep it; and you'd better believe it made good eating.

"One day my wife says to me, says she, 'Wiggins, it seems to me our beef is going very fast.' I went and looked, and sure enough it was going—rather faster than I thought it ought to. 'I've noticed it lowering unaccountably this long time,' said my wife. 'Somebody is stealing it. Why don't you set a trap?'

"But my neighbors were all good hearted kind of folks, though one or two of 'em might be just a little inclined to poke around where they did not belong, and I didn't want to hurt 'em. I concluded, however, that it would be best to put the barrel, with what little beef was left, down into the cellar, and I did it. Well, when the beef was all used up, and I went to clean out the barrel, I found this watch in the pickle. It looked to me like Tom Sherman's watch, Tom had worked for me considerable, and I have seen him have the watch, or one much like it. When I saw Tom I showed him the watch, and he said right off it was his.

"'How did you lose it?' said I.

"'I carried it in my pocket without a chain, and I must have dropped it out when I was stooping,' said he.

"'Well,' said I, 'then you must have been stooping over my beef barrel, for I found it in the pickle!'

"With that Tom looked kind o' sheepish, and I guess he saw the twinkle in my eye.

"'Let me look at that again,' said he.

"He looked at it a little while and then handed it back to me.

"'On the whole, Mr. Wiggins' said he, 'I guess it ain't my watch, after all. It must belong to somebody else.'

"And with that he walked off.

"I carried the watch to our jeweler, and he found that the cases had shut so tight that the works hadn't been pickled a bit; and for a dollar he cleaned it up in good shape; and for a dollar he cleaned it up in good shape; and set it running. It's a first-rate time-keeper, and I reckon whoever took my beef paid all it was worth."

The war is sending glove prices upward, "Alexandre" one of the largest manufacturers for this country, has stopped shipments, in consequence of his cutting factory being in besieged Paris. Gloves have accomplished much for Mr. Muller, who stamps his given name of "Alexandre" upon the glove. He owns a hotel in Paris for a winter residence, and possesses La Grande, with its 60 bedrooms and 1,500 acres of land, distinguished in former years as the home of Lafayette. His hospitality corresponds with these important dwellings. He manufactures his own champagne, claret and brandy each of a fine quality.

"The Catalogue of RUMSEY & CO., of Seneca Falls, embraces over 200 different styles and sizes of Lift and Force Pumps. They are now turning out 1,500 Pumps per week, which range in price from $3 00 to $400, employing 150 hands in the business. John A. Rumsey has recently patented an improved galvanized non corrosive cast iron Pump, which is safe from rust. An improved Hand Fire Engine of great efficiency, is also on their list. The machinery in Rumsey & Co's Factory is of the most efficient kind, much of it being of their own invention, and is driven by an unfailing water power. They are now building a new factory, 84x42 feet, 4 stories. When this is completed they will increase their working force to 250 hands. The business carried on by this firm was established by Rumsey about 30 years ago."—Iron Age, New York. d14dtf

After paying the expenses of the Entertainment, and making the distribution of the Gifts, as above announced, the balance will be applied to extinguishing the present indebtedness of the Mercantile Library Association.

Holders of tickets to which gifts may be awarded will receive the same on presentation of such tickets or coupons to the Business Agents of the Board of Trustees at their office, No. 318 California street, San Francisco.

NOTICE.

HOLDERS OF TICKETS to the GIFT CONCERT in aid of the Mercantile Library Association, are hereby notified, that the Concert is postponed until

Monday, October 31st, 1870

Unexpected interferences have operated to make this delay necessary to accomplish the result of freeing the Library from debt, without recourse to other privileges granted by act of the Legislature, passed February 19, 1870.

This is positively the only postponement which will be made. The Concert will take place on the day above named, commencing at nine o'clock, A. M., and to continue until all the gifts have been awarded.

The funds already in bank are considerably more than sufficient to insure the successful completion of the contract with the public.

The sale of tickets will positively close on Friday, the 28th day of October, 1870.

All tickets remaining unsold at that time will be withdrawn from sale and cancelled. They will be advertised by their numbers, on the 29th day of October, 1870, in one or more of the daily papers of this city. Any diminution thus made in the number of tickets to be drawn, will not affect the number or amount of gifts. They will be as heretofore advertised, to wit: 628 gifts amounting in all to $500,000 gold.

Ticket holders residing out of San Francisco will receive duly accredited lists of the awards of Gifts, which will also be published in the leading San Francisco daily papers, on the 1st November, 1870.

Delivery of gifts will commence November 2d, 1870, at the Office, No. 318 California Street, to all parties presenting tickets to which gifts have been awarded. All gifts awarded to non-residents will be held to their order and for their account.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his special study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of those fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Ordinance No. 870.

AN ORDINANCE ADOPTING THE REPORT OF of the Viewers in the matter of the opening and extension of certain streets in Caruthers' Addition to the City of Portland.

Whereas, The Common Council of the City of Portland, in order to provide for the extension, opening and establishing of certain streets in that part of the city included in the boundaries of the land claim of F. Caruthers, deceased, did, on the 16th day of March, 1870, direct the City Surveyor to make surveys for extensions of South Front, South First, South Second and South Third streets from the south line of Sheridan street to the south line of the Caruthers' land claim, and for the opening of streets to be known as Williams, Meade, Hooker, Porter and Woods streets, from an extension of the line of South Front street to an extension of the line of South Fourth street, and make report with plat, which said report and plat has been duly made and adopted by Ordinance No. 791, entitled "An Ordinance adopting the report of the City Surveyor in the matter of the proposed opening and extension of certain streets," and whereas, afterwards, to wit: on the 6th day of July, 1870, the Common Council appointed J. K. Kelly, E. D. Shattuck and J. M. Ritchey viewers of said opening and extensions, to meet for that purpose on the 25th day of July, 1870, of which due notice was given by publication in the DAILY OREGONIAN, a newspaper in general circulation, in the manner provided by law, and

Whereas, Said Viewers met at the time and place appointed, and being duly sworn have made said view, and made their report thereof, now therefore.

The City of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. The report of J. K. Kelly, E. D. Shattuck and J. M. Ritchey, Viewers of the extension and opening of certain streets in that part of the city included in the boundaries of the land claim of F. Caruthers, deceased, is hereby adopted, excepting so much of said report as relates to that part of South Third street which lies south of the south line of Hooker street, and those parts of Meade and Hooker streets which lie west of South Third street, and that part of Porter street which lies west of South Second street, which said report reads as follows:

"To the Honorable the Common Council of the City of Portland:

The undersigned, appointed viewers of certain streets in that part of the city of Portland in the boundaries of the land claim of F. Caruthers, deceased, pursuant to Ordinance No. 791, and to notice published in the DAILY OREGONIAN under date of July 9, 1870, respectfully report:

That they met at the office of the City Clerk and Auditor in accordance with said notice on the 25th day of July, 1870, at 10 o'clock A. M., and were then and there duly sworn, and then adjourned to meet on the 25th July at 1 o'clock A. M., at which time they met again and went over and viewed the ground specified in said notice, and adjourned again to the 27th July, 1870, at 7½ o'clock P. M., at which time they met and having heard all parties interested, who appeared, and duly considered the matter submitted and involved in said notice and proceeding, they do assess, determine and declare that none of the lands or premises through or over which the proposed streets in said notice mentioned and proposed to be extended will be rendered any less valuable by the opening and extension of said several streets according to the propositions and provisions of said ordinance and notice.

The said Viewers do further estimate and assess and declare, that none of the owners of or persons interested in the lands of which a portion is to be appropriated for said streets, will derive any benefits or advantages in excess of the damages sustained in the laying out, opening and extension of said streets in said ordinance and notice mentioned.

And said Viewers do further assess, estimate and declare that the benefits and advantages of said streets respectively in said ordinance and notice mentioned to persons whose land is not taken, but who own or are interested in lands within one hundred feet of said proposed extension will be of no appreciable value, and said Viewers award and declare as to the appropriation of each and every of the said tracts and parcels in said notice described and necessary to be appropriated, that no damages will be sustained by said appropriation to the owners of property taken, and no benefits will accrue in excess of damages to persons whose land is not taken.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Ordinance No. 864.

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE TIME and manner of improving Taylor street from First to Seventh street.

The City of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. The proposed improvement of that part of Taylor street lying between the west line of First street and the center of Seventh street shall be completed in the manner hereinafter provided on or before the first day of November, 1870.

Section 2. The surface of the street shall be cleared of all plank, timbers, or other obstacles or perishable materials (sidewalks, crosswalks and plank roadways of the proper width and grade excepted). If the obstructions are not removed by the owners of the adjacent lots within three days from the service of notice by the Street Commissioner they shall be removed by and become the property of the contractor.

Section 3. The improvement shall consist of grading, laying sidewalks, crosswalks, plank gutters and a plank roadway sixteen feet in width, the plank roadway to extend only to the crosswalks on the east side of Seventh street.

Section 4. The work to be done and materials furnished shall correspond with the provisions of and under the restrictions contained in Sections 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 of Ordinance No. 793, entitled "an Ordinance in relation to the improvement of streets."

Section 5. The Contractor shall take entire charge of the work during its progress and shall be responsible for any loss or accident occasioned by carelessness or neglect.

Section 6. The Committee on Streets and Public Property are hereby authorized to advertise for proposals, receive bids and enter into contract with the lowest responsible bidder or bidders for the improvement specified in this ordinance.

Section 7. The improvement shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Committee on Streets and Public Property and the Street Commissioner.

Passed the Common Council September 21, 1870.

THE RIVERSIDE

HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION!

OF

EAST PORTLAND, OREGON.

IS NOW PREPARED TO RECEIVE SUBSCRIPTIONS to their Stock.

Application for ONE HUNDRED SHARES [illegible] before the books were opened, and a large [illegible] Shares have been taken.

The following extracts from the Oregonian and [illegible] will convey a good idea of the plan and workings of the Association, the location of the land, etc.

RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

This association of whose organization we gave an account a few days since, is now ready to dispose of shares. As it is with one exception, the Portland Homestead Association, the first organization of that kind in this city, it will be well enough to state what are the purposes and the manner in which it is proposed to carry on its operations. The purposes of such Associations are not at all speculative in the ordinary sense of the word. They are formed not for the profits of their investment upon the general advance in the value of their lands, consequent upon the co-operation of a number of persons—shareholders—and the advance of value in surrounding lands by reason of the growth of population and demand for room, [illegible] still near, the city. The Riverside Homestead Association has a fraction over one hundred and twenty acres of land situated just above Brooklyn on the east side of the river, the nearest boundary line being about one mile from the ferry landing at East Portland. The tract [illegible] is one strip along the Willamette river, [illegible] in length, and another strip along the Oregon and California railroad, half a mile in [illegible], the two strips being connected near [illegible] by rows of blocks (with a street [illegible]), the whole forming a figure not unlike the letter H. It is divided into 74 blocks, [illegible] streets running at right angles, and [illegible] lots, along the river front. The number of shares [illegible] is 600, worth $60 per share. It will [illegible] a share thus represents nearly [illegible] undivided interest in the 80 feet [illegible]. Additional shares are to be sold [illegible] for the benefit of the Association, [illegible] coming in for the pro rata [illegible] number of shares held. When all [illegible] taken and the Association shall determine to do it, the choice of lots and blocks will be put up at auction to the highest bidder, the proceeds of such sales, after paying the original price of shares or lots, to be divided equally among the whole number of shares. Thus, if a person wants a particular lot and is willing to pay $100 or $200 premium, or less as the case may be, he pays it and takes the lot or block as his individual [illegible], the premium being divided among the [illegible] of shareholders. It will be seen [illegible] everything is co-operative, and all [illegible] tax. No man can make a dollar out of [illegible] out also making a dollar for every other shareholder. There is no [illegible] the property, by some chance, should [illegible] far below the first actual cost. [illegible] liable to happen in the case of this tract of land must be judged by [illegible] but considering the steady and [illegible] advance on real estate in this city and [illegible] hood, and at East Portland and vicinity [illegible] last year or two, it [illegible] hardly [illegible] values to go back.

In the Riverside Association all [illegible] tions seem to have been taken to [illegible] monopolies of shares. No person is [illegible] buy more than the number of shares [illegible] three blocks, or twenty-four lots, and [illegible] terminating the operations of the [illegible] restricted in the same manner. [illegible] shares may pay down $60 per share [illegible] exempt them from all assessments, or they may pay $15 quarterly with an [illegible] share, payable with the first [illegible] liable in this latter case to another (and [illegible] other) assessment of $3 per share. [illegible] payment of the shares in full, will be [illegible] as above, the holder is entitled to his lot and his proportion of all the profits [illegible] all sources. No officer of the Association [illegible] any pay for services except the Secretary, who gets $25 per month; so it will be [illegible] expenses must be light.

That part of the tract lying along the [illegible] a high plateau, nearly level, about 40 to [illegible] above the water. There is no part of the first row of blocks but commands a splendid view of Portland and the river for miles up and down stream. That part of the tract lying along the railroad is, every foot of it, of the [illegible] soil and adapted to gardening purposes. A beautiful little stream of pure water runs through almost the entire length of this wing of the tract, affording the means of irrigation, and power sufficient to supply pure water to every part of the whole tract. There is not a [illegible] lot in the entire tract. Under all these advantages, it would seem impossible [illegible] be any chance of loss to shareholders. [illegible] year each shareholder, if he choose, may get a perfect title to as many lots as his shares may represent, or he may continue his interest undivided, with the Association while the Association may exist.—Oregonian.

THE RIVERSIDE HOMESTEAD [illegible]

We have been led to make these [illegible] fact that the subject of making [illegible] skirts of this city and East Portland [illegible] discussed here among all classes, and one [illegible] "Riverside," just south of East Portland, has already been established. The site selected is a tract of land lying a little over a mile south of the ferry [illegible] shaped like the letter H, one side of which, a half mile in length, borders on the river.

From this portion of the [illegible] tract, which is a [illegible] but a trifle above the other prong of the H, but is all forty or fifty feet above the river, can be had an extensive view of Portland, East Portland, the [illegible] and the Willamette river for several miles. The land is [illegible] fertile, and is partly covered with light fir timber. A tract of land just wide enough for two rows of blocks, with an avenue between them, connects the west prong of the H (which has already been [illegible]) with that on the east. This last tract of land is in [illegible] valley, which is now under a high state of cultivation. Through its whole length runs a trout brook, the water of which is clear as crystal. With a hydraulic ram the Association proposes to have water conveyed through pipes to every portion of the [illegible]
